Location

Barnet

The London Borough of Barnet is a suburban London borough in North London, England, forming part of Outer London. It is the second largest London borough by population with 331,500 inhabitants and covers an area of 33 sq miles, the fourth highest. It borders Hertfordshire to the north and five other London boroughs: Harrow and Brent to the west, Camden and Haringey to the south-east and Enfield to the east.

With a population estimated at around 332,000 and 67% of householders being owner-occupiers provides a strong residential local audience. Incidentally, Barnet also has the largest Chinese population of any London borough!

About

The Spires, Barnet

The Spires Shopping Centre is the principal retail destination within the town centre and is retail anchored by Waitrose, WH Smith, New Look and Costa with Carluccio's being the main restaurant anchor.

A £10m investment will upgrade the retail mix with the addition of a two storey H&M fashion store and enhance the leisure mix with two additional restaurants. This will continue the centre's transformation into a prime destination for both shopping and entertainment.

Access Point Commercialisation

Access Point Commercialisation, it all starts here!

You've quite possibly worked with us before.

You know the service levels we offer.

So when we say "we'll look after you" you know we mean it.

We have been involved with commercialisation in shopping centres and retail parks for years but it's not a drum we went around banging.

It was time for a change so we have formed Access Point Commercialisation to look after your commercialisation needs.

So give us a call to discuss, you know we'll pick up the phone and listen to you.
